Cassadaga Spiritualist Camp & Rivertown Vintage Market & Mini-Reading

Cassadaga Spiritualist Camp is a 122 year old community of spiritually-minded people located in Central Florida. Join us to learn about the town's historic, unique and mysterious beginnings, its unusual architecture, and the spirit activity that still goes on in the homes of present day mediums. Cassadaga, dubbed, "The Psychic Capital of the World," is no ordinary place. The story of Cassadaga is strange and shrouded in mystery. Its unusual beginnings all started with a small boy, baptized in the frigid waters of Minnesota, and a rather pushy Indian spirit guide named Seneca. During the winter of 1860, when George was twelve, he was baptized in a nearby lake so frozen a hole needed to be cut in the ice. Shortly after, George claimed to be visited by the spirit of his uncle who told him he was a great psychic and would later found a great spiritual center in the south. To hear the rest of the story join us on this interesting day as we take an historical, walking tour of this mysterious town. To make our day even more fascinating, each participant will be treated to a fifteen minute mini-reading by an authentic Cassadaga spiritualist. Lunch is included, and after our readings, if time permits, we'll visit the Marketplace at Rivertown, a unique mall featuring Antique - Mid Century - Shabby Chic and Vintage items of all kinds.
