Key West - Another Trip to Paradise

We're Staying Right in Key West - Join Us for Another Adventure in Paradise!

The Island of Key West, also known as the Conch Republic, is the southernmost point in the continental United States. Located closer to Cuba than to Miami, Key West is Florida's irrev- erent southernmost subtropical paradise. Palm-lined streets with gingerbread mansions and tin-roofed conch houses were home to Ernest Hemingway, Tennessee Williams, Calvin Cline, Elizabeth Bishop, Robert Frost and Jimmy Buffett, a few of the famous people who discovered the island city whose Bahamian and Cuban heritage in large part was inspired by Bahamian wreckers, commercial fishermen, spongers and Cu- ban cigar makers.

Discover modern art treasures by Key West's artists among dozens of galleries by day, and then become part of the sensational sunset celebration held each evening at Mallory Square, when tightrope walkers, jugglers and animal acts per- form before the fiery sun settling into the Gulf of Mexico. As night settles, the streets, lined with sidewalk cafes, open-air bars, legendary pubs and world-class restaurants, come alive. Itinerary

Important Information: Motor Coaches are no longer per- mitted to enter the Key West historic district. The Key West transit system runs 7 days a week from 6:00 am to Midnight. The Duval Loop runs every (30 minutes (6am to 10am and every 15 minutes 10am to Midnight.)

The bus, known as the Duval Loop, connects with the Keys Shuttle. The shuttle stop is approximately 1 block from our hotel. Moderate walking is required on this trip. The public transit system is the only way to navigate Key West. Route maps will be provided.
