Tarpon Springs Sponge Capital Of The World

Join me for a delightful day in the Greek Fishing Village of Tarpon Springs, the Sponge Capital of the World. Everyone loves this quaint village, the authentic Greek food and the shopping. First, we will be welcomed aboard a real sponge diving boat with a local guide. This fun narrated and educational 40 minute boat ride teaches us how they originally dived and harvested for the sponges of the ocean! The highlight of this tour is watching a sponge diver in a traditional inflated sponge diving suit descend from the boat into the river. Lunch at an authentic Greek Restaurant, Hella's at 11:30. Time to shop from 1-3. No trip to Tarpon Springs would be complete without visiting St Nicholas Orthodox Cathedral built in 1943. We will make quick visit, on our way home, so you can see the Gothic and Byzantine architecture partially modeled in part after the Hagia Sophia's in Istanbul. The altar was originally part of the Greek exhibit at the 1939 NY World's Fair.
