Midway Airboat With Fabulous Lunch At Dixie Crossroads

Midway first started as a true fish camp in the 1930s. People would line up just to come fish and hunt the immediate areas surrounding the fish camp. The reason they're called Midway is because they're located midway between Orlando and the beaches. They began their airboat service in the 1970's. The long history has made them one of the most popular air boat attractions. After our one hour ride on the St Johns River, we can take pictures of you holding an alligator. Our next stop will be for lunch at the famous Dixie Crossroads where you will taste their delicious corn fritters! Choice of 1 dozen large shrimp, 1 ½ dozen rock shrimp, NY Strip Steak or Mahi Mahi. Includes baked potato and House Salad. For dessert Key Lime Pie (soft drinks included).
