Don't miss this once a year International Festival in a 21,000 sq ft tent filled with sand sculptors using Clearwater's sugar sand. This is a fun day of shopping, lunch on your own, relaxing on the beach (you can bring a lawn chair or blanket with you), and marvel at the amazing works of sand art made by these sculptors!

Our adventure begins from your clubhouse. We will stop at Fred's Market for breakfast along the way, where you may choose from eggs and bacon to biscuits and gravy to sausage and hash browns, homemade casseroles as well as the freshest ingredients on our fresh fruit bar. You can also get their famous fried chicken in the morning!

At 10:30, we will leave for the Sand Festival. After the day, we will meet up for the bus at 4:30pm to freshen up at the hotel and leave at 5:45 pm for our Tropical dinner buffet cruise which includes beer, wine, rum punch and soda! Dance to the DJ on our 2 1/2 hour cruise. Debarb and catch our bus for the return trip to our hotel.

After breakfast at the hotel, we will go to the Clearwater Marine Aquarium, home of Hope, the dolphin. Lunch on your own at the spacious new Shark Bites Café where they have delicious options for the whole family: cheeseburgers, flatbreads, fresh salads, and more! Vegetarian options are also available. Enjoy eating in the air-conditioned dining space or out on the open-air Dolphin Terrace with incredible views of Clearwater Bay. We will leave the Aquarium @ 2pm for the drive home to PSL.
