White Hall | Home of Henry Flagler w/Lunch at Chesterfield

Whitehall was the winter home of Henry Flagler, a leading figure of America's Gilded Age. He built this 100,000 sq ft mansion as a wedding present to his wife; it was completed in 1902. Enjoy a self-guided tour of the first floor of the Flagler Museum (Whitehall). After our tour, we will enjoy an afternoon lunch at the Chesterfield's Leopard Lounge and Restaurant. One of Palm Beach's best-loved institutions, it epitomizes gilded age sophistication. Invoking images of the grand institutions of the early 20th century, the jet black lacquer of the walls is highlighted with golden fittings, leather banquettes and leopard skin print carpets. The bevelled mirrors and punkah fans add to the astonishingly atmospheric space that encapsulates the microcosm of Palm Beach.
